

Dungeness Watershed Action Plan
Collaborative Group Workshop
October 17, 2011
10am-3pm
Jamestown S’Klallam Tribe, Red Cedar Hall
1033 Old Blyn Highway, Sequim

RSVP by October 13 to Susan Piper, Olympic National Forest – spiper@fs.fed.us or 360-956-2435

AGENDA

- 10:00 Welcome - Jamestown S’Klallam Tribe
- 10:10 Opening Remarks - Dean Yoshina, Hood Canal District Ranger, Olympic National Forest and Mike Anderson, Dungeness WAP Collaborative Group Lead, The Wilderness Society
- 10:20 Introductions
- 10:30 Agenda, Project Timeline, Process to-date - Susan Piper, Dungeness WAP Team Lead, Olympic National Forest
- 10:45 Watershed Condition Framework & 6th Field Subwatershed Process – Bob Metzger, Aquatics Program Manager, Olympic National Forest
- 11:00 Olympic National Forest Presentations of Proposed Restoration Activities. Format – presentations by proposed activities ranked High and/or submitted by collaborative group followed by group discussion after each category.

Aquatic Habitat (Road Decommission, Road Upgrade, Road Closure/Storage, Unclassified Road Obliteration) - Scott Hagerty, Forest Soil Scientist, Olympic National Forest

12:00-12:45 Lunch, bring your own. Refreshments provided.

12:45-2:15

Presentations of Proposed Restoration Activities continued.

Aquatic Habitat (Aquatic Organism Passage, Large Woody Debris Placement) - Marc McHenry, Fisheries Biologist, Olympic National Forest

Terrestrial Habitat (Young Stand Thinning, Native Plants, Invasive Plants) - Kurt Aluzas, Wildlife Biologist, Olympic National Forest

Recreation (Restoration Projects and Opportunities) - Sharon Yeh, Recreation, Lands, and Minerals Program Manager, Olympic National Forest

2:15-2:50

Next Steps and Wrap-Up – Mike Anderson

2:50-3:00

Closing Remarks – Dean Yoshina