

FOREST SPECIALIST SERIES - 2023 -

Join the Rio Grande National Forest for this year's Forest Specialist Series. Presentations are followed by a Q&A. Sessions are hosted by the San Juan Mountains Association.

Monthly from 5pm-6pm on Zoom | fs.usda.gov/goto/riogrande/FSS

January 25

Avalanches on the Rio Grande NF

Winter conditions and resources

February 22

Forestry of the Forest

Forest management; planting, logging, and monitoring

March 15

Rio Grande National Forest Stock Program

Projects and duties of our four-legged workers

April 26

Pollinators

Pollinators and how to get involved with research

May 24

Wildfire

Wildfire season outlook and operations

June 28

Mining and Geology of the Creede Area

Learn more about the Creede Mining District

July 26

Plants of the Rio Grande NF: The Good, the Bad & the Weird!

Botany of the Forest

August 23

Nelson Tunnel Rehabilitation

Past, Present, and Future

September 27

Bunker Site Archaeological Test Results

Findings from an archaeological dig

October 25

Culturally Modified Trees

Meanings and our interactions

November 29

Wolves and the Rio Grande NF

Identification and biology of Wolves

December 13

Pioneer Fish Culturists

Historical Fisheries on the Upper Rio Grande