USDA

FOREST SERVICE

ABOUT THE MALHEUR NATIONAL FOREST

Hunting, Fishing, Hiking, Mountain Biking/Cycling, Camping, Winter Sports, Beautiful Scenery, and Uncrowded Spaces!

Nestled in the majestic Blue Mountains of Eastern Oregon, the Malheur National Forest encompasses 1.7 million acres in parts of Grant, Baker, and Harney Counties.

The area offers numerous outdoor recreational opportunities including hunting (elk, deer, upland birds), fishing, hiking, mountain biking/cycling, camping, beautiful scenery, and winter sports such as cross country and back country skiing or snowmobiling. It offers wide open, uncrowded spaces for those seeking peace and solitude.

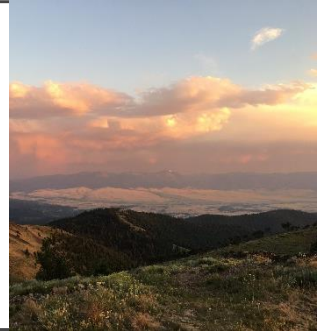

Strawberry Lake

ABOUT THE AREA

GRANT COUNTY: JOHN DAY AND PRAIRIE CITY

The upper John Day River Valley is home to the majority of the 8000 residents of Grant County. John Day constitutes the primary population "center" and county seat. It is a full-service community with a hospital, medical and dental offices, elementary, junior high and high school, restaurants, motels, bed and breakfasts, fairgrounds, and a county airport. Prairie City is located 12 miles east of John Day.

GRANT COUNTY
CHAMBER OF COMMERCE
https://www.gcoregonlive.com/

SCAN

HARNEY COUNTY: HINES

The community of Burns/Hines has a population of 5500 residents. As the service center for Harney County, Burns/Hines is a full-service community. There are two large grocery stores, hardware and ranch supply stores, clothing stores, several restaurants and large motels, two drug stores, several fitness centers, bed and breakfasts, two lumber yards, several service stations, as well as many other services and stores.

HARNEY COUNTY
CHAMBER OF COMMERCE
https://harneycounty.com/

SCAN

HOUSING

Housing is limited in the area. Rentals range from $400-$700 for apartments, and $700-$1200 for rental houses. Homes range from $100,000-$250,000 for a 1-to-2-bedroom home, and up to $300,000+ for a larger home with land.

Limited Government Housing is available.