The Placitas Area Trail System encompasses a number of designated National Forest System trails as well as a number of user-created, unofficial trails. The Sandia Ranger District asks users to minimize their impact(s) to this fragile environment by observing the following:

- Be courteous to other users - bicycles yield to hikers and horses
- Travel only on established trails – limit cross-country travel
- Trail construction is not permitted unless approved by the Cibola National Forest
- Bicycles are not permitted within the Sandia Mountain Wilderness
- No motorized vehicles (including "e-bikes") permitted on trails
