

FOREST SPECIALIST SERIES

Join the Rio Grande National Forest for this year's Forest Specialist Series. Presentations are followed by a Q&A. Hosted by the San Juan Mountains Association.

Monthly from 5pm-6pm on Zoom | www.fs.usda.gov/riogrande/fss

January 19

Avalanches on the Rio Grande NF
Winter conditions and resources

February 16

Animals Adaptations For Winter
How do they survive the cold and snow

March 16

Sandhill Cranes
Migrating through the San Luis Valley

April 13

Women in Public Lands Leadership
Learn from the women managing your public lands

May 18

Wildfire Preparedness
Start your summer in the know

June 15

Wildflowers
Mountain meadows and alpine aspects

July 13

Logging on the Rio Grande
Current projects and forest management

August 17

Smokey Bear
The History and story of Smokey Bear

September 14

Summer Season Crews
What is it like to work on Forest Service field crews? Advice, experiences, and stories

October 19

Behavior and Biology of Ungulates
Deer, elk, moose, and bighorns

November 16

Guides Forum
Stories from local outfitters and guides

December 14

Winter Recreation
What to do and where to go on your Forest