

Pets are not permitted within the Recreation Area. Bicycling is permitted before 9am and after 5pm, and not permitted at all on Wednesday and Saturday. Trail Description
Name and Number	Code	Map Grid	Elevation (in feet)	Length (in miles)	Difficulty	Comments - all info is one way from southern most origin of trail
38 - Bajada Loop		G1	Average 2600	0.3	Easy	Barrier-free, flat trail with vegetation identification. Trail guide available.
29 - Bear Canyon		G1 C6	2800-4800	8.9	Moderate to Difficult	Open and uncovered trail provides access to Espereo trail (0.1 mile), Sabino Lake trail (0.5 mile), and Phoneline trail (0.8 mile), Follows the carnyon floor, crossing the creek 7 times (may get wet) before gaining elevation to Seven Falls (4.3 miles). Beyond Seven Halls trail, switchbacks follow contours of ridge line, then steep climb to Sycamore Basin ending at East Fork and Sycamore Reservoir trails. No Falls witch back follow
48 - Blacketts Ridge		G2 F3	2800-4400	1.6	Difficult	Steep climb with switchbacks, and false summits. Trail ends on ridge top with sign.
51 - Bluff		G2	Average 2600	0.2	Easy to Moderate	Desert trail with rocky terrain contours bluffs above Sabino Creek providing views of the riparian area.
22 - Box Camp		A5 B5	3700-8050	*6.0	Moderate to Difficult	Ascends from Sabino Basin to a prominent view point before entering the Mt. Lemmon area with high elevation and heavy timber. *1.0 miles of trail is shown on map.
52 - Creek		F2 G2	Average 2800	0.5	Easy	Fairly well shaded, follows creek (may get wet). Starts at the junction of Sabino Dam (#33) and Sabino Lake (#30) Trails and ends at Phoneline Link (#27A). Not recommended during high water flows.
24A - East Fork (AZ Trail)		B5 C6	3820-4400	2.1	Moderate	Narrow trail climbs a steep slope out of Sabino Basin. 🚳
25 - Esperero		G1 D1	2800-7280	*6.7	Moderate to Difficult	Ascends into the high peaks of the Pusch Ridge Wilderness. *3.4 miles of trail is shown on map.
99 - Palisade		A6 B5	4160-7840	*6.4	Moderate to Difficult	Ascends from Sabino Basin to a prominent view point before entering the Mt. lemmon area. Last 3 miles in heavy timber with north trailhead off Organization Ridge Road. *1.1 miles of trail is shown on map.
27 - Phoneline		G2 D4	3060-3680	4	Moderate	Rocky and narrow on steep slopes. Contours the east side of Sabino Canyon.
27A - Phoneline Link		F2	2800-3060	0.9	Moderate	Crosses creek bottom then ascends switchbacks. Also connects to Shuttle Stop 2.
50 - Rattlesnake		F2	Average 2800	0.4	Moderate	Low elevation, rocky desert trail. Crosses dry streambed.
23 - Sabino Canyon		D4 B5	3600-3820	2.5	Easy to Moderate	Steep switchbacks at pavement end. Contours along ridgeline from Sabino Basin into Mt. Lemmon.
53A - Sabino Connector		G1	2700-3300	0.4	Easy to Moderate	Mostly level, scenic trail connecting the overflow parking area to the Sabino Carryon Road. The trail has steps, wheelchairs not advised. Open Oct 15-April 30.
52A - Sabino Creek		D4	Average 3250	0.5	Easy to Moderate	Descends to Sabino Creek from Shuttle Stop 9.
33 - Sabino Dam		G2	Average 2600	0.3	Easy	Shady trail follows the creek and hillside. Not recommended during high water flows.
23A - Sabino Historic		E4	3600-3820	0.7	Moderate to Difficult	Steep, rocky ascent to Phoneline (#27) from Shuttle Stop 7.
30 - Sabino Lake		G2	Average 2600	0.6	Easy to Moderate	Desert trail with rocky terrain, ending in riparian area.
53 - Sabino Walkway		G1	Average 2800	0.5	Easy	Begins at the end of the Visitor Center sidewalk. Parallels the road.
39 - Sycamore Reservoir (AZ Trail)		C6	4400-4800	*3.2	Moderate to Difficult	Ascends 1 mile to Sycamore Reservoir. Moderate climb from wilderness boundary to an old road bed about .8 miles long before entering the trailhead located at the back of the Gordon Hirabayashi Campground. *0.6 miles of trail is shown on map.
24 - West Fork (AZ Trail)		B5 A2	3820-6200	*6.5	Moderate to Difficult	Wilderness trail, follows canyon bottom to Hutchs Pool, then climbs to Romero Pass. *2.4 miles of trail is shown on map.