The campsites not assigned by the Forest Service include: Oakie Point which is closed because of hazardous snags; Airplane Camp which is near the Indian Creek airstrip and is only assigned for deadhead float trips; Cameron Creek and Pebble Beach which are closed for cultural resource reasons; Quick Stop and Velvet which are small sites generally used for scouting rapids; and Horsetail since it has a very difficult boat landing. In summary, 53 large, 10 medium, and 31 small sites used in the campsite capacity analysis at water levels of five feet or below.
