

Cultural Resources, A Living History on the Cleveland National Forest

2010 Accomplishments

This project was initiated to assist the Laguna Mountain Volunteer Association and the Cleveland National Forest (CNF) archaeologist in presenting an educational event about native plants and their uses of the early settlers and tribes in the Laguna Mountains of the CNF, California.

Figure 1. Native American plants

Year Awarded: 2010

Project completion: 2010

Report number: 2

Expenditures: FY2010, $3,000

Partners/Contractors/Coop: Laguna Mountain Volunteer Association

FS – Pacific Southwest Region
Cleveland National Forest
10845 Rancho Bernardo Road
San Diego CA 92127