

"A world of grasses and flowers stretched around me, rising and falling in gentle undulation. Acres of wildflowers of every hue glowed around me. What a new and wondrous world of beauty! What a magnificent sight! I was in the midst of a prairie!"

Eliza R. Steele, A Summer Journey in the West 1841

Celebrating our National Grasslands, Prairies & Wildflowers

Art and design
by Steve Buchanan

Spartina pectinata

Amorpha canescens

Monarch

Sorghastrum nutans

Solidago speciosa

Annual cicada

Gutierrezia sarothrae

Liatris

pycnostachya

Stipa spartea

Bouteloua curtipendula

Bobwhite

Opuntia macrorhiza

Castilleja integrifolia

Viola

pedata

Meadowlark

Eupatorium purpureum

Coreopsis lanceolata

Viola pedata

Aristida longiseta

Andropogon gerardii

Veronicastrum virginicum

Baptisia australis

Ruellia humilis

Spiranthes magnicamporum

Anise swallowtail

Bumblebee

Pestemon

haydenii

Katydid

Elymus canadensis

Asclepias sullivantii

Dragonfly

Schizachryium scoparium

Monarda

fistulosa

Grasshopper

sparrow

Echinacea angustifolia

Katydids

Masard wasp

Echinacea

angustifolia

